

FactSet Recognised as one of the 2016 Best Workplaces in the UK

May 3, 2016

NORWALK, Conn., May 03, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- FactSet, a leading provider of integrated financial information and analytical applications, was once again named by Great Place to Work® as one of the UK's Best Workplaces in the Medium category (organisations with 50-499 employees), ranking 41. FactSet's 8th time on the list, the Great Place to Work® report highlighted its collaborative culture.

"This award is especially meaningful because the perspectives of our employees are an important part of the selection process," explained FactSet CEO Philip Snow, "Our more than 8,000 global employees are central to our ability to deliver the best insight and information to our clients around the world and this reinforces our commitment to ensuring FactSet truly is a great place to start and build a career."

FactSet was selected among many companies vying for a place on the list this year. The process includes an employee survey and an in-depth questionnaire about company programmes and practices. The award recognises the range of people, policies, programmes, and initiatives that enable FactSet's high-performing culture.

In 2016, FactSet was also rated a Best Workplace in France and was recognized as one of Fortune's 100 Best Companies to Work For®.
