

FactSet Announces Appointments of Chief AI Officer and Chief Technology Officer to Accelerate Enterprise AI and Platform Strategy

March 4, 2026

NORWALK, Conn., March 04, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- FactSet (NYSE:FDS | NASDAQ:FDS), a global financial digital platform and enterprise solutions provider, today announced the appointments of Kate Stepp as Chief AI Officer and Bob Stolte as Chief Technology Officer, effective March 2, 2026. These appointments reinforce FactSet's continued focus on harnessing artificial intelligence capabilities to enhance client value across its global technology platform.

Chief AI Officer

In her new role as Chief AI Officer, Kate Stepp will lead FactSet's AI services for clients, reporting to Sanoke Viswanathan, Chief Executive Officer of FactSet. She will focus on driving the development and deployment of AI capabilities across the company's products and client solutions, and partner across the organization to further accelerate the roll out of AI solutions in each client type.

Kate was most recently Chief Technology Officer at FactSet, a role she held since September 2022. During her time in the role, Kate brought a client-focused lens to technology development and led the expansion of enterprise solutions to key clients amid increasingly complex technical requirements and a rapidly evolving AI landscape.

"AI is central to how we innovate, serve clients, and operate," said Sanoke Viswanathan, Chief Executive Officer at FactSet. "Kate brings the strategic vision, technical knowledge, and leadership needed to translate emerging AI capabilities into meaningful outcomes for our clients and our business."

Chief Technology Officer

Bob Stolte has been appointed Chief Technology Officer, effective March 2, 2026, reporting to Sanoke Viswanathan. In this role, he will lead FactSet's global technology organization, with responsibility for platform modernization, engineering execution, operational resilience, including system reliability, cybersecurity, IT business continuity, and enterprise technology strategy. Bob brings extensive experience leading large-scale technology organizations and complex transformation programs across global financial institutions.

"Bob brings deep expertise in technology transformation, engineering scale, and platform modernization," said Sanoke Viswanathan, Chief Executive Officer at FactSet. "His leadership will help ensure our technology foundation continues to support innovation, resilience, and long-term growth."

Strengthening FactSet's Innovation and Technology Leadership

Together, these appointments reinforce FactSet's commitment to advancing AI-driven innovation, strengthening its technology platform, and delivering differentiated capabilities for clients across the global financial ecosystem.
