Laird and Billeadeau. Its primary function is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities to ensure officers and other key executives are compensated in accordance with the Company’s total compensation and organizational objectives. The Audit Committee has three members: Messrs. Connolly, Mickle and Siebecker. The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight review of the Company’s financial reporting processes. Its primary responsibilities include meeting with financial management to review the Company’s system of internal controls, reviewing the external audit process as conducted by the Company’s independent auditors and reviewing the financial information provided to shareholders and other external parties. The Nominating Committee was formed in January 2001 by a vote of the Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee has three members: Messrs. Hadley, Snyder and Laird. The Nominating Committee’s duties include reviewing the qualifications of candidates for nomination as Directors as well as making recommendations to the Board regarding prospective nominees to the Board.

During fiscal 2001, the Board of Directors officially met seven times, the Compensation Committee met one time and the Audit Committee met four times. The Nominating Committee did not meet in fiscal 2001. All directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board and the meetings of the committees on which they served, with the exception of Mr. Wille.

Philip A. Hadley and Michael F. DiChristina, as officers of the Company during fiscal 2001, received no compensation for serving on the Board of Directors. Effective January 1, 2001, each director, with the exception of Mr. Hadley and Mr. DiChristina, receives an annual retainer of $20,000 in addition to 3,000 non-qualified stock options on the date of each annual meeting for his service on the Board. Also, Committee chairmen receive an annual fee of $2,500. The exercise price of each non-qualified stock option is the closing price of FactSet’s common shares on the date of grant. Prior to January 1, 2001, non-employee Directors received an annual retainer of $10,000 and 2,000 non-qualified stock options on the date of each annual meeting for their service on the Board. In addition, non-employee Directors were entitled to receive $1,000 for attending each meeting of a committee of the Board (or $500 for participating by telephone). Each non-employee Director is entitled to one FactSet password at no charge. The password provides access to the FactSet system to allow Directors to use the Company's products and services. Non-qualified stock options granted to Directors vest ratably at 20% per year over five years upon the anniversary date of each grant and expire ten years from the date the options were granted.

During fiscal 2001, the Company's Board of Directors granted accelerated vesting privileges of non-qualified stock options previously granted to David R. Korus, a Director of the Company from July 1997 to January 11, 2001. The unvested portions of Mr. Korus's stock options automatically became vested and exercisable concurrent with the expiration of his term as a member of the Company's Board of Directors. The aggregate number of stock options owned by Mr. Korus was 19,600 with exercise prices ranging from $9.40 to $33.06 per stock option. The accelerated vesting of these options resulted in the recognition of $383,400 in compensation expense in fiscal 2001, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Board of Directors has charged the Audit Committee with a number of responsibilities, including review of the adequacy of the Company's financial reporting and accounting systems and controls. The Board has adopted a written Audit Committee Charter, a copy of which was included as an appendix to the definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the solicitation of proxies for the fiscal 2000 Annual Meeting. The Audit Committee has a direct line of communication with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's independent public accountants. The Audit Committee is composed entirely of independent directors as defined by the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

The responsibilities of the Audit Committee are set forth in its Charter. In fulfilling its responsibility, the Audit Committee discusses with the Company's independent public accountants the overall scope and specific plans for their audit. The Audit Committee has reviewed the Company's audited financial statements for fiscal 2001 with management and with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. Such review included discussions concerning the quality of accounting principles as applied and significant judgments affecting the Company's financial statements. In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP matters such as the quality (and acceptability) of the Company's accounting principles as applied in its financial reporting, as required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees. The Audit Committee has received from PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP written disclosures concerning the independent accountants' independence from the Company and has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP its independence, as required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. The Audit Committee recommends to the Board of Directors the selection of the independent public accountants.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions conducted with management and the independent public accountants, the Audit Committee has recommended to the Board that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's 2001 Annual Report on Form 10-K, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

In addition to performing the audit services for fiscal 2001, the Company also retained PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to perform other non-audit related services during the year. The aggregate fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in connection with the services rendered for fiscal 2001 were as follows:

Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee (the "Committee") is responsible for administering the Company's executive compensation policies and practices. The Committee is composed solely of outside directors and reports regularly to the Board. Outside directors are not eligible to participate in any of the plans or programs it administers. In fiscal 2001, the Committee reviewed cash compensation for the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer, the President and Chief Operating Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, the Chief Technology Officer and the Director of Sales and Marketing. The Committee also reviews and approves the aggregate number of options granted to employees to purchase Common Stock of the Company.

In carrying out its duties, the Committee has direct access to independent compensation consultants and outside survey data. Compensation for the named Executive Officers and other key management positions is designed to:

1. Attract, retain and motivate key personnel.
2. Be competitive with compensation offered for similar positions by other companies in the technology and financial services industries.
3. Tie a meaningful portion of compensation to the Company's operating and financial performance through annual bonuses.
4. Link the financial interests of key employees and the Company's stockholders via stock-based incentives.

Overall, the Company aims to deliver above-average compensation contingent on achievement of superior levels of Company and individual performance. Compensation is delivered through three major components, as described below:

Base Salary. Base salaries have been established according to the experience and qualifications of the individual executives. Generally, base salaries are intended to be sufficiently competitive to attract and retain key employees.

In fiscal 2001, the base salary for Mr. Hadley was $342,318. Mr. Snyder, who served as the interim Chief Executive Officer of the Company from May 22, 2000, through September 4, 2001, was not compensated beyond the $10,000 monthly retainer to which he was entitled pursuant to the consulting agreement he signed with the Company effective for the period of September 1, 2000, through August 31, 2001. The consulting agreement between the Company and Mr. Snyder was terminated on May 3, 2001, effective April 30, 2001.

Annual Bonus. Annual bonuses have been determined on a discretionary basis considering a number of factors including the Company's profitability, revenue growth, achievement of strategic and department goals, individual performances and competitive market practices. In the normal course of business, the Committee determines the bonuses for the named Executive Officers based on the Company's operational and financial performance and competitive total compensation levels determined by an independent compensation consulting firm. In considering competitiveness, the Committee reviewed the compensation levels for a sample of industry sector companies of similar size and financial performance to FactSet. This group is a more comparable set of companies than those included in the NASDAQ Computer Index used for the performance graph below.

Stock Options. Stock options are intended to align incentives with long-term stock performance and act as a motivational and retention tool. Stock option grants were made in fiscal 2001 to selected key employees based on individual contribution and potential.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), imposes a limitation on the deductibility of nonperformance-based compensation in excess of $1 million paid to named Executive Officers. As such, compensation paid in fiscal 2000 by the Company is fully tax-deductible. The tax deductibility of compensation for the named Executive Officers will be preserved as long as such actions are consistent with the Committee's compensation policies and objectives and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

The Committee believes that the fiscal 2001 compensation of the named Executive Officers was aligned with the Company's performance and returns to shareholders and provided a balanced mix between base pay and incentive compensation.

SUBMITTED BY THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Employment Agreements

The Company has an agreement dated May 8, 1996, with Ernest S. Wong relating to the terms of his employment. Under the agreement, in the event Mr. Wong is terminated by the Company at any time for reasons other than good cause, as set forth in the agreement, the Company will continue to pay his base salary and standard employee benefits for 12 months following the date of such termination. In the event Mr. Wong is terminated for any reason within one year following a change in control of the Company, as defined in the agreement, Mr. Wong will be entitled to continue receiving his base salary and standard employee benefits for two years from the date of such termination.

At the end of fiscal 2001, the Company did not have employment agreements with Messrs. Hadley, DiChristina, Frankenfield or Thomas.

On May 22, 2000, Mr. Wille, the Company's former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, announced his desire to retire from active employment with the Company and as Chief Executive Officer of the Company. At this time, a Retirement Agreement was entered into between the Company and Mr. Wille. In accordance with the Retirement Agreement, for a period of thirty-six months subsequent to August 31, 2000, the Company is to provide Mr. Wille (and his spouse and dependents, if applicable) medical and dental benefits substantially equivalent to those benefits previously received by Mr. Wille during his tenure as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Also, under the Retirement Agreement, Mr. Wille has agreed not to engage in certain activities in competition with the Company, including directly or indirectly owning, managing, operating, joining, controlling, engaging in employment by or participating in or consulting for, any business that is similar to or competes with the Company or its subsidiaries for a period of two years subsequent to August 31, 2000.

Mr. Snyder's employment contract with the Company expired in 1999, and he retired as President and Chief Technology Officer effective August 31, 1999. He agreed to remain as a consultant to the Company's Engineering and Technology groups and was elected Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors. Upon his retirement, Mr. Snyder entered into a consulting agreement with the Company effective September 1, 1999, that expired September 1, 2000. The Company renewed the consulting agreement with Mr. Snyder for the period of September 1, 2000 through August 31, 2001. On May 3, 2001, the consulting agreement between the Company and Mr. Snyder was terminated effective April 30, 2001. Under the terms of the consulting agreement: 1) Mr. Snyder was paid a monthly retainer of $10,000 and was reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the services contracted for with the Company; 2) Mr. Snyder agreed to keep Company proprietary information confidential; 3) all inventions related to the business of the Company in which Mr. Snyder may have been involved were considered the sole property of the Company; 4) Mr. Snyder agreed not to engage in certain activities in competition with the Company, including directly or indirectly owning, managing, operating, joining, controlling, engaging in employment by or participating in or consulting for any business that is similar to or competes with the Company or its subsidiaries or to participate in the solicitation of any Company employee to leave the employ of the Company; and 5) Mr. Snyder performed consulting services under his consulting agreement as an "independent contractor" and not as an "employee" of the Company. In addition to his duties as a consultant to the Company during fiscal 2001, Mr. Snyder was named interim Chief Executive Officer of the Company at the time of Mr. Wille's retirement. Mr. Snyder continued to act as interim Chief Executive Officer of the Company until September 5, 2000, the date on which Mr. Hadley was named Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board. Mr. Snyder was not compensated beyond the $10,000 monthly retainer to which he was entitled in accordance with his consulting agreement with the Company.

II. Matters Requiring Shareholder Vote

1. Election of Directors

Two Directors are to be elected at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Each Director will hold office for a term not exceeding three years or until a successor is elected and qualified. It is intended that the accompanying proxy will be voted in favor of the following persons to serve as directors, unless the stockholder indicates to the contrary on the proxy.

Management expects that the nominees will be available for election. However, if a nominee is not a candidate at the time the election occurs, it is intended that such proxy will be voted for the election of another nominee to be designated by the Nominating Committee of the Board to fill any such vacancy. The Board requests that the stockholders vote on the following nominees to serve a three-year term expiring in concurrence with the Annual Meeting of Stockholders for fiscal year 2004:

Joseph A. Laird, Jr. Refer to page 2 for Mr. Laird's biography and page 6 for information about Mr. Laird's stock ownership and compensation.

Charles J. Snyder. Refer to page 3 for Mr. Snyder's biography and page 6 for information about Mr. Snyder's stock ownership and compensation.

2. Ratification of the Selection of Independent Public Accountants

The Board requests that the stockholders ratify its selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as independent accountants for the Company for fiscal 2002. If the stockholders do not ratify the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Board will select another firm of independent accountants.

Representatives of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will be present at the Meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement. They will also be available to respond to appropriate questions.

III. Solicitation of Proxies

The Board solicits the proxy accompanying this Proxy Statement. Officers, directors, and regular supervisory and executive employees of the Company, none of whom will receive any additional compensation for their services, may solicit proxies. Such solicitations may be made personally, or by mail, facsimile, telephone, telegraph or messenger. The Company will reimburse persons holding shares of Common Stock in their names or in the names of nominees, but not owning such shares beneficially, such as brokerage houses, banks and other fiduciaries, for the expense of forwarding solicitation materials to their principals. The Company will pay all of the costs of solicitation of proxies.

IV. Vote Tabulation

Vote Required. Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, the election of the Company's Directors requires a plurality of the votes represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting and the ratification of the selection of accountants requires that the votes in favor exceed the votes against. Mellon Investor Services will tabulate votes cast by proxy or in person at the Meeting.

Effect of an Abstention and Broker Non-Votes. A stockholder who abstains from voting on any or all proposals will be included in the number of stockholders present at the Meeting for the purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Abstentions will not be counted either in favor of or against the election of the nominees or other proposals. Under the rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, brokers holding stock for the accounts of their clients who have not been given specific voting instructions as to a matter by their clients may vote their clients' proxies at their own discretion.

V. Proposals of Stockholders

Proposals of stockholders intended to be presented at the fiscal year 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by us, attention: Mr. Ernest S. Wong, the Company's Secretary, at our principal executive offices, no later than August 1, 2002, to be included in the Company's Proxy Statement.

VI. Other Matters

The Board does not intend to bring any other business before the Meeting, and so far as is known to the Board, no matters are to be brought before the Meeting except as specified in the notice of the Meeting. However, as to any other business, which may properly come before the Meeting, it is intended that proxies, in the form enclosed, will be voted in respect thereof in accordance with the judgment of the persons voting such proxies.
